ARCHBISHOP KAIN'S RETURN.

Met at New York by St. Louis Priests-Reception Plans.

A special disputch to The Republic from New York last tilght says that Archbishop John J. Kain of St. Leuis, who has been abroad during the summer, arrived at New York yesterday on the steamship Umbria of the Cunard Line. The Archidshop was wel-comed home by a delegation of priests from the St. Louis Diocese, who met him at the pler and escorted him to the Waldert-As-toria, where diamer was served, in the aft-ernoon, Archidshop Kain called upon Arch-habop Corrigan.

toria, where dinner was served, in the archeroon, Archibishop Kain called upon Archibishop Corrigain.

At the Wasiorf-Astoria with the Archibishop are Fathers May and Laccy and their associates of the Reception Committee, who will accompany the distinguished prelate to St. Louis.

Archibishop Kain went to Rome carry in the summer to fulfill the conditions of the jublice of Hely Year. He had several auditences with Faye Loo Xill, and while in Rome he guletly celebrated the silver jublice of his own episcopats. From the Eterial City the Archibishop journeyed through the Condinent and crossed the Channel to Ireland, where he renewed many of accumintanceships.
